WESTON

Construction . . .

Over the last two years, the school has gone through major renovations. From the new auditorium to the Home Economic's room, everything is being updated with the newest technology. Several departments have been relocated; math classes have moved upstairs and the Art Department has found a new home. The library is temporarily located in C-wing, while the permanent location is being renovated. Everyone enjoys eating and lounging in the much improved cafeteria and the Media Center is being used by a variety of classes. The changes are appreciated by everyone. We hope to see the finished school in the fall of 1998.

RIGHT. It's The Mall. Bobby Kim, Justin Kutticherry, and Andrew Hastings enjoy eating lunch in the new cafeteria.

BELOW. Tools of The Trade. We've gotten used to the construction workers and their tools.

RIGHT. Our New Theater! Construction of the new auditorium over the past year has resulted in a great success.

BELOW. We've Gone High Tech. The new math and foreign language wing has been updated with the latest technology.

Mr. Ronald Mori

Mr. Ronald Mori is the Director of Music for the Weston Schools. In addition, he is in charge of the instrumental music program at Weston High School. Whether he is conducting the band or leading the orchestra, he never lacks a guiding spirit that encourages the ensemble to perform to its potential. With patience and dedication, he has taught both of these groups difficult pieces, ranging from works by J. S. Bach to those by Wynton Marsalis. A flexible man, Mr. Mori has led the band and orchestra through many concerts featuring styles of music from Baroque to jazz. He has always been cheerful, starting and finishing every year with a sense of enthusiasm and pride. It will be extremely difficult to find someone who can fill the shoes of Ronald Mori. His commitment to Weston High School will not be forgotten. Enjoy your retirement, Mr. Mori. We will miss you.

–Derek Yi

Mr. Joseph Jordan

For over thirty-two years, Joseph Jordan has been as much a part of the Weston High School community as our mascot, the Wildcat. He is well respected by his colleagues, but maybe more importantly, adored by his students. His charismatic and light hearted approach to teaching is a signature that will be long remembered. Mr Jordan aims to get the most out of his students, and by being the open and fair man that he is, the best is usually what he gets. Perhaps his greatest quality, the reason why his presence will be so greatly missed, is his willingness to befriend his students. It is rare to find teachers who leave the classroom role in the classroom, but he does so with ease. Students can relate to and feel comfortable talking about anything with Mr. Jordan. Those who know him are better people because of all that he has to offer. His absence will surely be felt as he leaves Weston, but his memory will live on in his students.

We Worked Into The Night . . .

Preparation of Hollywood

RIGHT. Pile On! These girls take a breather during a hard working, rigorous week of construction and decoration.

ABOVE. Don't Stop! If it hadn't been for these devoted men of '98, we wouldn't have had the prom.

RIGHT. Nice Work Girls! Theresa Woodworth and Alyson Friedlander try to carry the marblized paper up the town hall stairs without falling.

LEFT. Oh Yeah! Justin Adelson does a little dance as he and Suzanne Rousseau test out their muscle strength.

LEFT. Sooner or Later. Whitney Gollinger and Jenny Sluka look a little clean to be at prom construction! Don't worry, they got their share of paint later on in the evening.

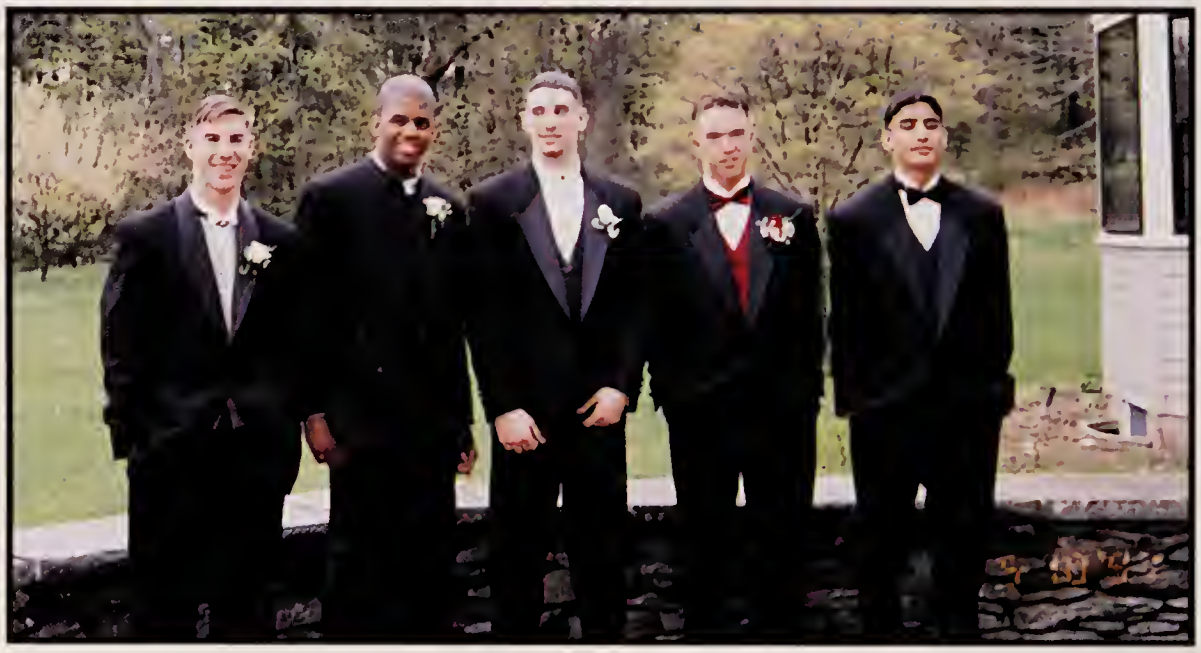
BELOW. Lots of Help. Taylor McCallum carefully handles a mirror piece as Melissa Davidson applies the chaulk, while other class members look on.

LEFT. Messy! Justin Adelson, Alix Lazzari, Alexa Berk, Mara Johnson and Paul Kurkjian look like they've gotten into a paint fight.

ABOVE. Hollywood! The infamous Hollywood sign, stolen from Hollywood Hills by the brave Class of '98, was used as a back drop for the prom.

The Night Was Perfect. . .

After a week of hard work, Hollywood was finally completed. It was a whole class effort that ended up a great success. From the movie star silhouettes to the red carpet and spotlights, everything came out perfectly. The Class of 1998 worked together to produce an amazing evening. Each class member took a portion out of their week to construct and transform the Town Hall into Hollywood. Once the paint was scrubbed off our faces and the dance floor was swept, we were able to relax and enjoy the result of our hard work. It was definitely a night that the class of 1998 will never forget. The enormous effort from Best Actor and Best Actress, David Happ and Alix Lazzari, helped make Hollywood spectacular. Even when the clock struck twelve, the night was still young.



ABOVE. These senior guys anticipate a night they will never forget at Hollywood.

RIGHT. Theresa Woodworth and Lauren Klapholz can't wait to see the prom which they helped to create.

We Needed You . . .

We Couldn't Have Done It Without You

We could not have gotten this far without help along the way. Our class parents and advisors helped us prepare for the auction, construct the prom, run class car washes and more. But they didn't stop there. Whether it was staying up till midnight making sure the prom was perfect or showing up an hour early before a football game so we could make hotdogs, our class parents and advisors were always there for us. We would like to honor our class mothers, Mrs. Zacharias, Mrs. Inui and Mrs. Davidson and our class advisors Mr. McCowan and Mrs. Crimmin.

LEFT. Friends! Mrs. Inui, Mrs. Zacharias and Mrs. Davidson were friends long before they became the class mothers.

The Night Was Scary. . .
Weston High School Celebrates Halloween

RIGHT. Mr. McCowan, Mr. D, the school presidents, and the Ninja hang out in front of the school.

BELOW. Nerd! Jeff Listfield, I mean Owen Zacharias, looks intelligently into the camara.

ABOVE. Allll-righty Then! Who knew that the green mask could help guys pick up girls?

The Night Is Still Young. . .

The Class of '98 has stayed together throughout it all

RIGHT. Future Presidents?? Back in middle school, Dane Callow and Omar Coston had no idea what type of responsibility they would be taking on their senior year.

BELOW. Come Together. The ladies of 1998 pose for a photograph before dancing the night away at the eighth grade Semi Formal.

"Shadows rise when sunshine falls, and then they both reverse." --Harvey M. Bond

The days in which the Class of '98 shone at Weston High School have come to a close. However, we have taken the warmth, the knowledge, the experiences of Weston High, and made them a part of ourselves. As we enter the next phase of our lives, we know that we have the light inside of us to shine as stars. We will think of our graduation not as the setting of the sun but as a twilight in which we can look back on the glory of our days at Weston and prepare for the transition into our new lives. We know who we are, and we will reach for the stars.

George Bernard Shaw:
"The reasonable man adopts himself to the world, the unreasonable one persists in trying to adopt the world to himself, thefore all progress depends on the unreasonable man" -The Revolutionist Handbook

I would like to thank my family, (esp. Mom and Dad) for encouraging me to do and be the best that I can, for loving me, teaching me about the Lord and instilling in me morals,and just being there. I would also like to give thanx to My Lord Jesus Christ, for he is my savior and best friend. He never changes.

And to friends, (esp. SD,TL) and classmate I hope to keep in touch. Good luck and God Bless.

Weston's a place that becomes part of you and never leaves you. It's a place that becomes part of your identity. It's not the place that causes this though, it's the people. Friends like KC,JA,OZ,AB,JD,LK,TW,TM, XW,DM,CM,TI,JM,MS,MD,AF,EM,JL, MA,JAM,TC,PC,DA,EA,DB,AH,DK,JM, and lots,lots more make all that possible. I'll remember all of u, even if you're not above. My life has been one filled w/ lots of places and people but weston will stand out as the biggest part. thanx to my fam too all 5 excluding me! opportunities are rare in the world, don't take 'em for granted. it may seem like a period of our life is over as we leave "the end is the beginning is the end" sp we can't forget the good times, remember the bad. class of 98's the best,good luck to all!

As high school draws to a close, and we all go on to different things and different places, we should remember where we came from.

Thank you TIDE, 153, APP, & everyone else. I have to go take a physics test now so, good bye.

This seems really small

April 22

Everything that is gone, I will remembe as not all good or all bad, but a blended memory of how things once were. Days from now I never want to wake up not knowing how or why. But to fear your dreams a little less, and be able to admit to yourself there may be a distance you can wander where your own heaven lays, is more than hard. My heart aches to find that one answer for me that can make sense of this life. But I realize that life shouldn't make sense, because it is the damn uncertainty of it all that gives it its bueaty. Don't fail to realize who you are and what that all means. To all those who know me as well as anyone can, I hold back to say this more than I should, I love you. I've had my own share of tears and some times, and am more than ready to raise up some hell.

I want 1000 pages so that I can tell the whole story but maybe it and all of our stories have become trite—all made dull and commonplace by the millions who have come before us. Maybe all that matters in the end when all our time has been used isn't the story but the moments. Through all the confusion and triviality, through all the haze that is our lives there are times that shine brighter. They stand suspended, forever frozen like priceless snapshots reminding us that there is something better, something beautiful about life and the world. I can condemn Weston a million ways. Bad times and good times here seem to blend together to form one uniform mass of indifference. But from it all I can take away the moments andI guess that's enough.

In this two years, it moves so quick. I can't believe I'm graduated. To make my life run thoroughly, I should say "Thank you" to many people around me!
First of all, I would like to thank the teachers who have taught me. Especially: Mr. Currie, you are the most enthusiastic teacher I have ever seen. Mrs. DaCosta, you make me like español. Muchas gracias. Mrs. Brown, I really like the way of how you teach. Mrs. Fishman, thanks for being help.The last 4 important persons in my life that I want to say 'thank you' and 'sorry' are...MY PARENTS & MY SISTERS. Thank you: encouraging and supporting me anywhere, anytime. Sorry: I didn't do the best in the past years, but I'll promise you 'I will in the future!!' I LOVE YOU!

City Lights Auction...

The Class of '98 earned a record amount of money

RIGHT. Dane Callow and Jon Wohlers try to get the crowd to bid for a week's stay at a beach house on the Cape.

FAR ABOVE. Selena Coppock and Jenny Kendall auction off a night of singing by the Pralines.

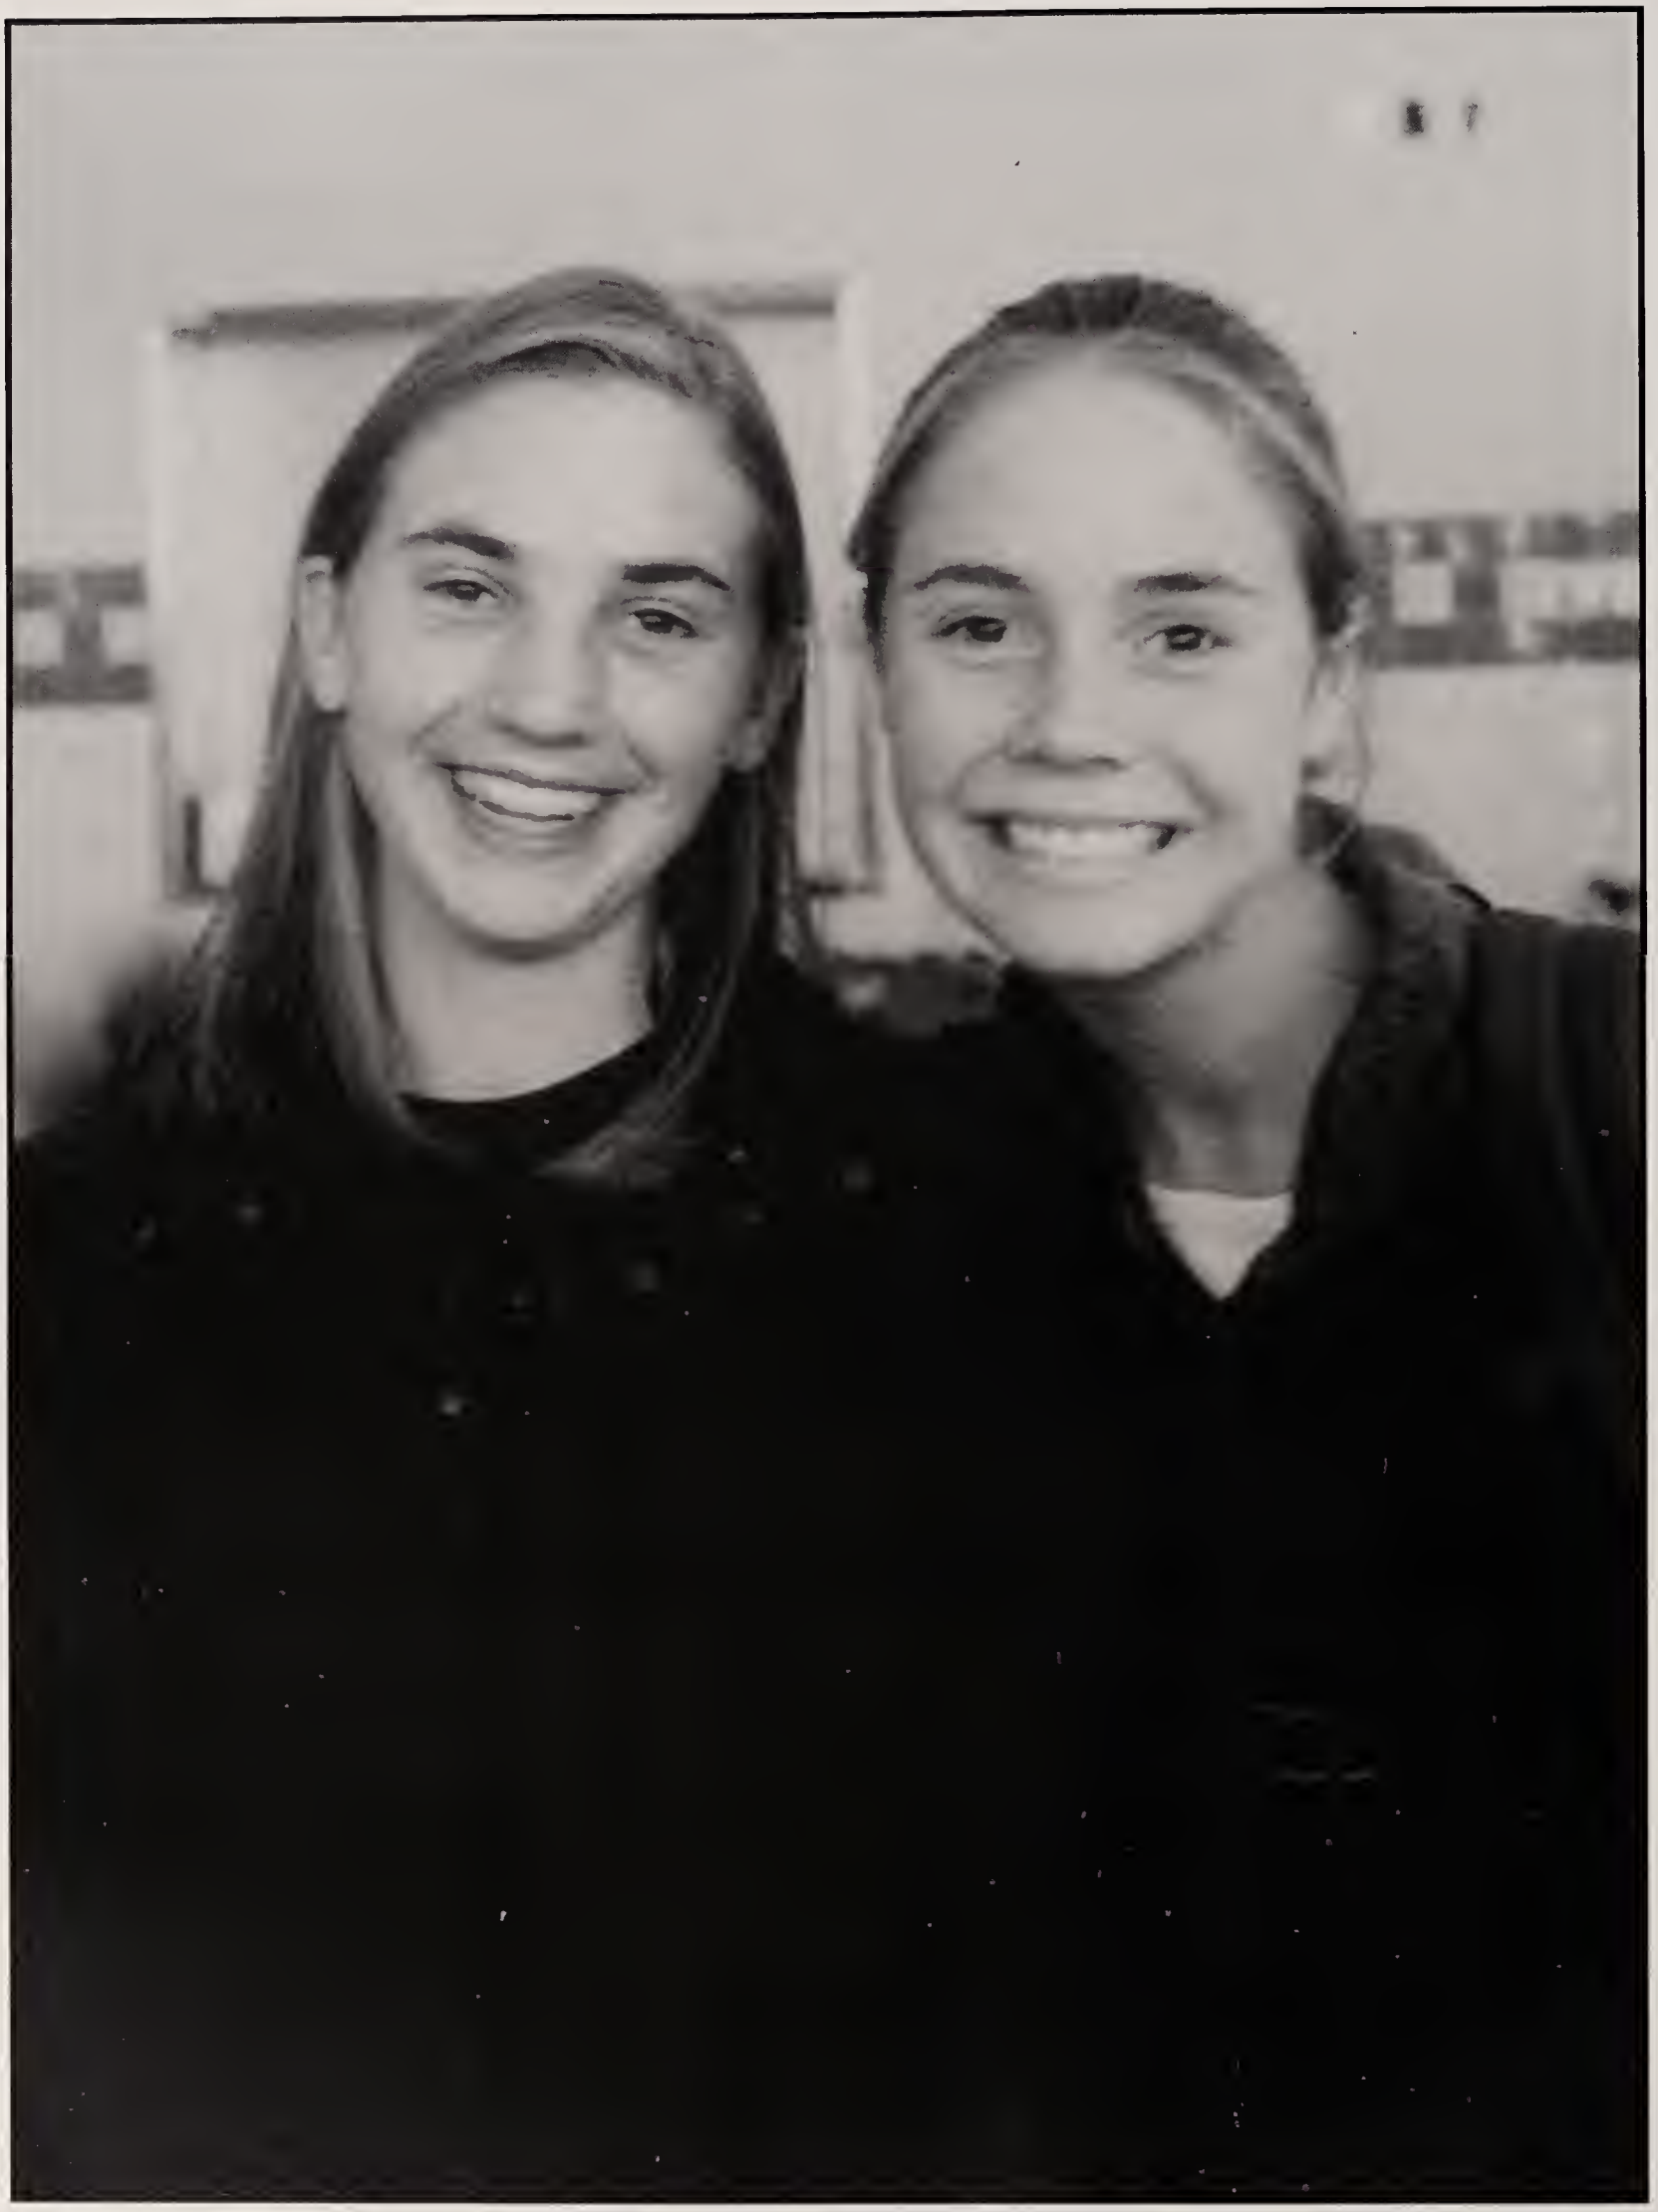
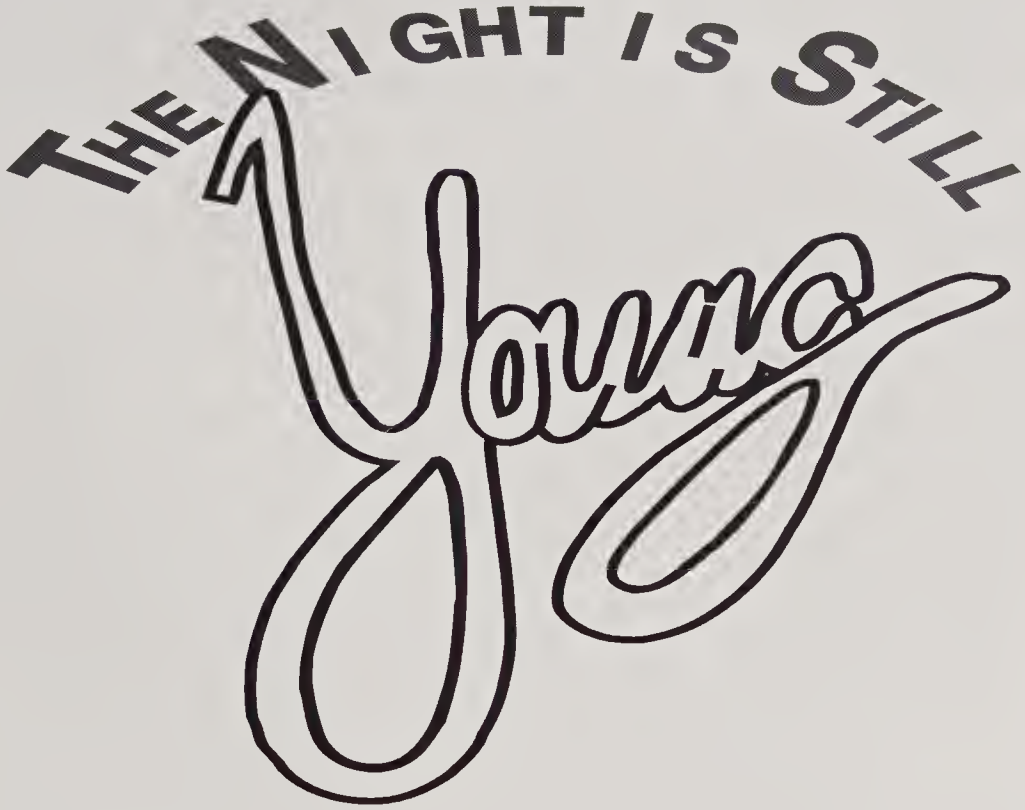
LEFT. Dana Brigham, Theresa Woodward, Mrs. Crimmins and Justin Adelson are excited that the auction was a success.





The crisp air, the bright stars, the endless possibilities... Who knows what this night will hold? Let's drive off into the endless night, bound for anywhere. I'll be behind the wheel, you work the stereo. The wind blows through the open windows and through our hair. Memories in the making.

UPPERCLASSMEN.
Kevin Wright, Jeffrey Parker, Chad Caldwell, Wendy Theall and Evan Gallagher hang out in the recently renovated caf at the beginning of Junior year.

So here we are, juniors. Upperclassmen at last. Every year our class has become closer, but this year was something special – from the Clothing Drive for the Garfield Elementary School, to the record-breaking Wild West Auction and the unforgettable Mardi Gras. Thanks to the Class of '99 for helping to make ' 98 one of our best years at Weston High.

– John Kushner

QUOTES

SERIOUS SOPHS.
George Sarianides, John Keramaris, Katie Fulchino, Bobby Desaulniers, Joelle Lurie, Jonathan Bassett, Jessica Lee, and Jason Semine prove that the sophomore class is an intellectual one.

This year has been very exciting with a trip to Hammond Haunted Castle, along with a donation of books to the Jackson-Mann School in Somerville, and excellent participation in City Year. The sophomore/junior Christmas Party was a blast, as was our semiformal and car wash. We have found ourselves well adjusted to the High School and are looking forward to 2000.
–Mike Archambault, Class President

QUOTES

They have passed the half-way point and are preparing for the ever-so-important junior year Here are some quotes from classmates that summarize their year . . .

"Sophomore year is great. You aren't a freshman, and you aren't swamped with the work load of junior year either."
"I didn't let sophomore slump pull me down!"
"It was harder than last year."
"Next year we get to take the PSAT's, my months of studying better pay off."
"I danced the night away at the semi-formal."

THE NEW CLASS!
Rachel Biondolillo, Ani Bagdasarian, Steph Humphrey, Jackie Dew and Anna Shum pose for a group shot in the hall of their new school.

The freshman class kept busy planning class trips and community service projects. We went on a ski trip to Cranmore Mountain and to the Omni Theater to see "Mt. Everest." We had fun recording books on tape and purchasing a number of books in Braille for blind students at the Jackson Mann School . We are very happy with the progress of the class, and look forward to the future.
–Ani Bagdasarian, Vice-president

QUOTES

Looking back on their first year of high school, here are some quotes from freshmen that summarize the year . . .

"It was a big change coming from the Middle School, but we handled it like pros."
"The Bug - a - What?"
"Peer Leading really helped us get acquainted with the high school."
"I thought it would be a lot harder than it really is, but I've still got to make it through sophomore and junior year."
"Getting free periods second semester was sweet."

Weston

The future is emerging for the Class of '98, like the black night sky: vast, mysterious, and alluring. We are excitedly anticipating the future, yet we do not know what it holds. Challenges and hardships lie ahead, but we are prepared for them. Weston has given us the ability to shine like the stars in the night sky. Over the years, we have gained wisdom, knowledge, love, and memories that have become our foundation and guidance. Teachers, friends, family, and mentors have all helped build this foundation, and now we are ready to stand and shine on our own. Each one of us can use our talents to shine and together we will form a brilliant night sky.

Captain J.P. Parker slides for a ball against Newton South. The junior helped keep the team determined and motivated and hopes to improve on this year's success in the future.

Brad Callow was a solid contributer on this year's team. The sophomore proved himself a varsity player and looks forward to strong seasons in the future.

Evan Gallagher moves the ball up field. This defensive star looks to continue on this year's rebuilding process. The Cats were in contention in almost every game, but lacked the scoring threat to consistently come out on top. Next year's seniors, Dave Bell, J.P. Parker, Connor Wilson, and Andrew Starr, will work hard in the off-season to make their final season a successful one.

Forward Andy Starr sprints upfield. With his stamina and power, this junior was a major threat on the Wildcat's attack.

Junior Jarida Eastman, left defenseman, was an aggressive and powerful defender all season long. She marked her opponents tightly, and helped keep the ball out of the net.

Junior K.C. Czarnowski was unstoppable with her offensive and defensive skills. She never gave up and fought for the ball with one hundred percent effort.

Stop On Opponents To the Offense State And Title Defense

Captain Katie Ryan gets ready to strike the ball past the opposition. This senior was a major force for Weston at sweeper and helped lead the team to a state title. Along with stopping the opposition's offense, she was a team leader and motivator that helped the Cats achieve their best season in school history.

Senior Captain Evan Carlson tees off for another great hole. In this sport's first Varsity season, Carlson led the team to an 8-7-1 record, which included an upset of D.C.L. power Westford. The team just missed qualifying for the post season tournament by three strokes. Carlson, who qualified individually, made an exceptional run in the tourney, making the Boston Globe All-Scholastic golf team.

Alex Smith swings hard into this drive. The junior posted impressive numbers this year, while helping the team thrive in the D.C.L. One of his many achievements was posting ten wins, the third most on the team.

Ross Wrangham shows off his power in escaping from this tough lie. This sophmore earned himself a Varsity spot this season.

Only losing their top two runners to graduation, the Wildcats return eight of ten Varsity runners to next year's squad. For the returning members of this year's team (4-4), the future looks bright. With an early season placing of 13th in the Bay State Invitational, and 2nd place finishes at the Brown Invitational, E-Mass Div. 2 Class Meet, and Mass. Div. 2 State Meet, Wilson showed that he can run with the best. In the process he broke 3 D.C.L. course records, including Weston's own, with a time of 13:26, easily besting the old record of 13:38 set by James McCowan.

Theresa Woodworth, Torrey Kulow, Jenny Wong, and Mari Varriale pose at the Brown Invitational where the girls ran to a surprising 8th place finish.

Cross Country

This year's season was a very encouraging one for the girls team. With a considerably larger turnout than previous years, the girls had a much stronger season than their record (1-7) shows. Megan Miller, Torrey Kulow, Mari Varrialle, and Dana Brigham helped to power the strong Varsity squad that just barely missed qualifying for the Mass State Meet.

Captain Omar Coston was a major contributor to the Wildcat's great performances this year. While helping lead the team to victory, he also ran very strong individually, earning himself D.C.L. All-Star status.

Senior captains Omar Coston and Justin Wilson are the only two runners graduating from 1997's aspiring squad. In their final season, they led the team to an astounding 6th place finish at the Mass. Div. 2 State Meet.

Co- Captain Julie DiMartino was an excellent mid-fielder for the Wildcats this year. She was an unbelievable leader who watched her team become the champions of the ever tough D.C.L. The team has continued one of the greatest sports legacies of all-time at Weston High and did so by working hard and playing as a unit. Their post-season was stopped short, but their effort was nothing short of phenomenal.

Co-captain Suzanne Schaubert was an influential force on the field and a leader as well. She helped make an already potent forward line even better through continual solid play.

Junior Selby Becker was again the second highest scorer in the D.C.L. behind fellow teammate Taylor McCallum. Selby always seemed to find a way to score in the big games. Luckily for the Cats, she still has one more year to tear up the league.

Senior Mara Johnson gets ready to pound the ball towards the opposing goal. In her three years of Varsity play, Mara's tenacity annually led her to win D.C.L. All-Star status.

The Tide tradition was upheld once again with strong leadership from the senior class. Captain Dane Callow provided the Red Tide with guidance and maturity, leading the D.C.L. in sprinting.

Diver Kristine Osmond displays the perfect pike position which helped the Tide all season. Along with senior Alix Lazzari and sophomore Gwen Nolan, the female diving squad was well represented.

Co-Captains Suzanne Schaubert and Jen Sluka, along with freshmen phenom Courtney Davies, carried the G.L.O.W.S. to new heights, capturing the D.C.L. and North Sectional titles. Leadership also came from juniors Selby Becker, Trish Zeytoonjian, Amy Stutius, Susan Warren, Laura Fox, and Lydia MacDonald. Three school records were broken during the best girls season in Weston history.

For four years, Weston has been very fortunate to have one of the best divers in the state, Andrew Hastings. This year, he set two new varsity records and was named the '98 Sectional Champ.

Senior Captain Tazo Inui led the boys team to a successful year of swimming excellence. The team once again went beyond expectations in a season everyone thought of as a rebuilder. Freshmen star Niles Madison carried the team to many victories, along with Matt Peters, Justin Adelson, Dave Kahler, Dave Antman, and of course the two captains, Dane and Tazo. The boys were once again in the hunt for the D.C.L. and finished fourth at the North Sectional meet.

While helping the team take third in the Div. 4 State Meet, Thornton grabbed second in the 600, and Wilson first in the mile, the event in which he also posted a new school record, 4:19.64.

Sophomore hurdler Christie Langenberg practices at Brandeis University. She was a large part of the girls' success, a team that went undefeated in the D.C.L. and captured their second straight Massachusetts State championship.

Sophomore Taryn Schlowsky works hard at a regular season meet. This gutsy miler is just one of the many great up and coming distance runners that will help the Cats continue the winning tradition.

This was definitely a season to remember.

Another Cats Record Pin Breaking All Sason for Foes Mat Cats.

Seniors Ted Chan and Matt Fulchino give it their all in a late season tune-up practice. These two warriors were major contributers to the Cat's success, helping the team to a D.C.L. championship and its greatest season in team history. Among the many accomplishments this team has posted, was sending eight wrestlers to the all-state tournament, the most in state history.

Senior captain Jason Kahan practices his moves before the all-state meet. This wrestler was a powerhouse in the heavier weight classes this year; placing first in the State Meet.

Big boy Jim Marett gives fellow captain Alex Botchan a lift. Botchan is the defending all-state champion at the 142 weight class and helped lead the team to a 15-0 season, tacking on to that unblemished record a team state championship.

Seniors Jay Kahan, Ryan McGowan, Jim Marett, Matt Fulchino, Al Botchan,and Ted Chan are all business when it comes to wrestling. Leadership wasn't hard to find on this team as all the seniors were outstanding on and off the mat.

Here stands Miranda Craigwell, the most dominating inside player in the D.C.L. and Weston girls hoops history. Miranda is a two time all-star and was one of the driving forces behind the team's new found success.

Row One. Caroline Broderick, Sapna Dixit, Jessica Guzzi, Lindsay Cassell. Row Two. Coach G., Jill Conley, Caroline Pierson, Amy Kim, Alexandra Kappel.

Freshman Jesse Berkey dribbles the ball over half court to start the offense. Jesse was a starter in her first year and was probably the best shooter on the team. Expect great things from her in the years to come.

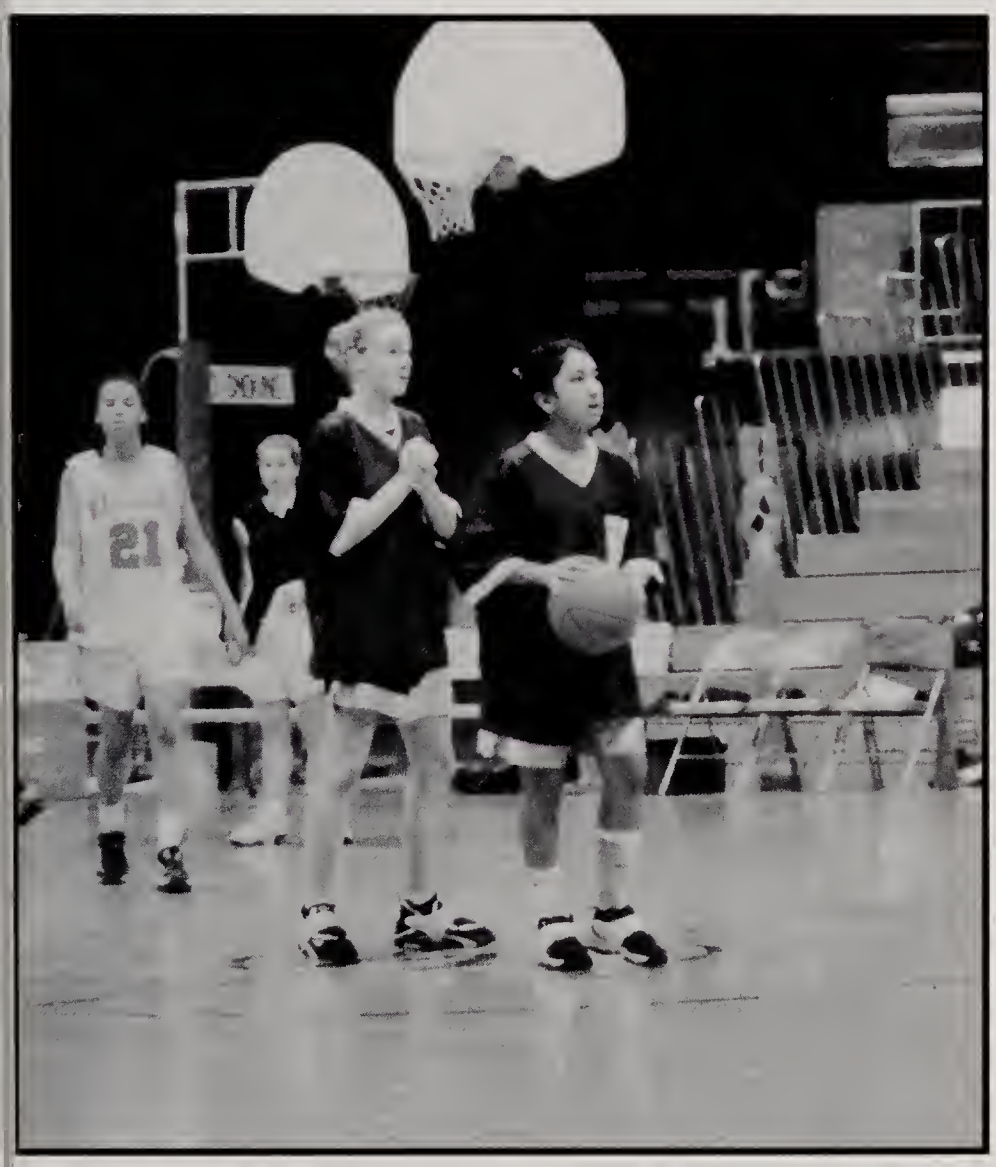
Girls Basketball

Togetherness was one of the main qualities that led to the unprecedented success of the 97-98 season. Nearly the entire team will be returning for next year's season, which means that the Dual County League is in for some serious trouble. Last year the girls went 3-17. This season, they tripled their wins, along with making it into the state tourney and gaining a first ever victory.



Angela McMahon takes a free throw against rival Wayland. Angela sped her way past defenders all year as point guard. Only a sophomore, Angela has two spectacular years coming up.

Tri-Captains Sara Peterson, Jothi Murali, and Krissy Ewton (not in picture) provided leadership and maturity for a young and talented squad. Jothi will graduate having seen her team start off with no wins her freshman year and ending the 98 season as a blossoming powerhouse.

Evan Carlson drives to the hoop for a "too sweet" score. Evan became a 1,000 point scorer this year and continued a run of three straight all-star appearances. The team repeated as D.C.L. Champs, North Sec. Champs, and won the school's first State Championship. Although it was a senior laden team, the future is safe with junior stars Jared Chandler, Stephen Sahlman, Matt Wolf, Khamal Edison, Kevin Wright, and Alex Smith.

Paul (Chief) Kurkjian gets ready to launch a downcourt bomb. As the best "One on One" defender in the league, Paul was an instrumental player all four years of his varsity action.

John (Flight) O'Rourke shows great concentration as he prepares to defend his opponent. A hard work ethic and a consistent three point shot have allowed John to be one of the best role players in the state.

Senior Walden Barzey soars toward the rim for a sure slam. Walden was the D.C.L.'s MVP in a year when he became one of six people in Weston history to score 1,000 points.

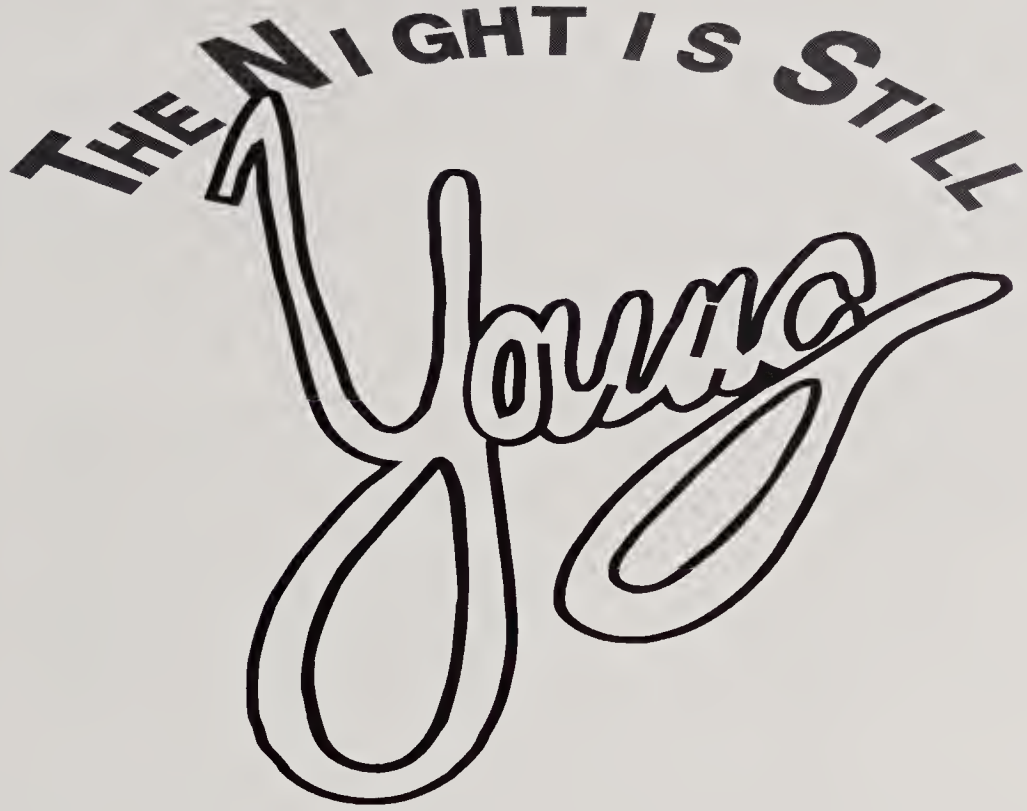
PEAK



The students of the Class of '98 eagerly anticipate the opportunity to begin a new phase in their lives. Our times spent together and goals we have achieved serve as a foundation upon which we have built and from which we will continue to extend our influence. Our multitude of successes in sports, acting, academics, and extracurricular activities have defined us and shaped us into the young adults we are today. As our lives at Weston High come to an end, we do not wish to envision this as an ending, but rather as a beginning of a new chapter in our lives.

–Megan Miller

If students have a disagreement they can come to Peer Mediators such as Bobby Desaulniers, Lawrence Hutcheson, and Chris Wai.

Mr. Fuller, David Cope, and Mr. Desaulniers are the ones who make these important groups possible.

Hari Singh uses his communication skills while having a conversation with Anthony Bryant in the cafeteria.

Rehana Ashraf and Xana Wolf sit at the Activities' Fair awaiting sign-ups for the Discussion Group.

Members of the Discussion Group and Peer Mediation meet to converse various topics and help out their peers.

TALKING IT OVER

Rehana Ashraf and Lindsay Miller can't wait for the conference periods on Tuesday and Wednesday to go to Discussion Group.

Dane Callow, Sam Kasirrer, and Jessica Lawrence are ready to discuss problems with their peers.

Justin Wilson and Bill Martin share their love and enthusiasm for Othello.

The ultimate frisbee team is hard at practice in preparation for an upcoming game.

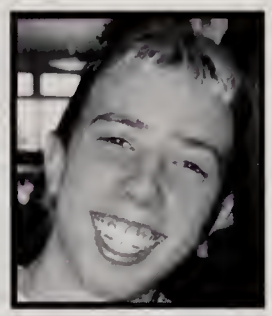
"Strategic Games of the Mind is the perfect way to show your friends whose really smarter "

–Dan Weiss

"Does anybody know how to play Risk ? "

–Bill Martin

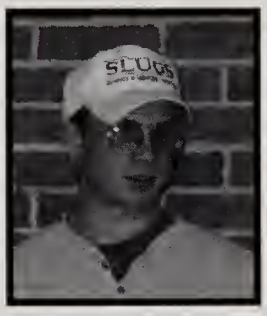


"Strategic Games and the Alternative Sports Club are the two most exciting clubs in the school. They really keep me busy and active. "

–Justin Wilson

"Ultimate frisbee is without a doubt one of the best sports ever invented, next to skiing of course. "

–Owen Zacharias



"Frisbee hasn't always interested kids at WHS, therefore the point of the Alternative Sports club was to really boost that interest which was lacking. "

THE NIGHT IS STILL Young

"Shadows rise when sunshine falls, and then they both reverse." --Harvey M. Bond

The days in which the Class of '98 shone at Weston High School have come to a close. However, we have taken the warmth, the knowledge, the experiences of Weston High, and made them a part of ourselves. As we enter the next phase of our lives, we know that we have the light inside of us to shine as stars. We will think of our graduation not as the setting of the sun but as a twilight in which we can look back on the glory of our days at Weston and prepare for the transition into our new lives. We know who we are, and we will reach for the stars. —Alexa Berk

To Those Who Have Been Beside Me Along The Road of Life...

Jon, wherever we stand when you read this, remember that the times I have shared with you will never be forgotten. I intend to hold you for the longest time. let's play it by ear, ok? whatever. i'll see u later, my sugar pie. Kir, thanx for being a friend, my 1 wish is that our friendship had begun sooner...better late than never. I will always be impressed by how well you handle my complaints. Melis, let the good times roll! Why is it that we are so "unslick", weekend bud? Andy, you never failed to set me off, whether is was about yearbook or my driving. thanx for helping me lighten up. Dana, your randomness is your charm. don't change. Laur, forgive me for my short temper, thanx for putting up w/me. we did it! Alyson, not turk!, even though u over did it its alrite by me, dance partner, kick off your dancin' shoes. Meg, right now! Theresa, squeaky feet. you're a sweetie. Jo, Jim, Caro, Owen, Em, Em, Chuck, Keith, Phil, Bill, Marge, Dan, Areg, Dane: it wouldn't have been the same w/o y'all. Stella, I'm glad things got cleared up. Field hockey: carry on the torch. Class of 1998: "To thine own selves be true." Best of luck, wherever the road of life takes you.

Thank you Wally Beevers for teaching us how to serve.

Bobby,

As a child, I held your hand and followed where you led, out of respect, admiration, and trust.

As we grew older, we helped each other become the individuals we are today, always there for one another to comfort and to share tears with, releasing our pain in each other's strength.

You have been my comrade, and you have looked out for my back, while standing by my side.

Today, we are filled with trust, admiration, and respect for one another, protecting each other as best friends.

Now we are finally ready to release the hand of the other, because the bond of our hearts has been made eternally strong through . . . .

the love of a brother and a sister.

I will always be there for you.

Love and Godspeed,

Amy

Lizzy the Friz our small town girl
Zealous, vibrant in a constant whirl
Freckles, sneakers full of might
You, Lizzy Friz are your parents' delight.

Uniforms, crutches, deadlines, et.al.
Pizzas, videos, hanging out with your pals
Exuberant, zingy forever our star
Buzzing about in that little red car.

Boats, fishing, your Dad's first mate
Skis like lightning, but for mom you must wait
Big sister to Emily, the best we might add
When you leave the nest, even puppums will be sad.

Laughter, tears, excitement galore
Raising our Miss Liz has not been a bore
Curfew combat with Mom and Dad
In College no curfew, guess who will be glad!

With great love and pride we applaud you Lizzy
¥ou've brightened each day, you've sure kept us busy
There's no stopping our small town girl
The world is yours now, so give it a whirl!!!!

Lizzy,
Thanks for being being such a great older sister. There was never a time when I 'couldn't look up to you for anything. Thank you, good luck and I love you!!!

Mara

Mara,
You've always known what's best for you. Continue to be the individual that you are. I'm very proud of you. Good luck in whatever you choose to do.
I love you. Kelly

You are one in a million. I will always be there for you.
All my love, all the time.
Mom ♒

Mara,
I am so proud of you.
The opportunities you seek are in yourself.
It is not your environment;
it is not in luck or chance;
or the help of others.
It is in yourself alone.

Shoot for the moon. Even if you miss, you're heading for a star. I love you.
Dad

Mara,
I'm proud of you. I wish you the best life has to offer.
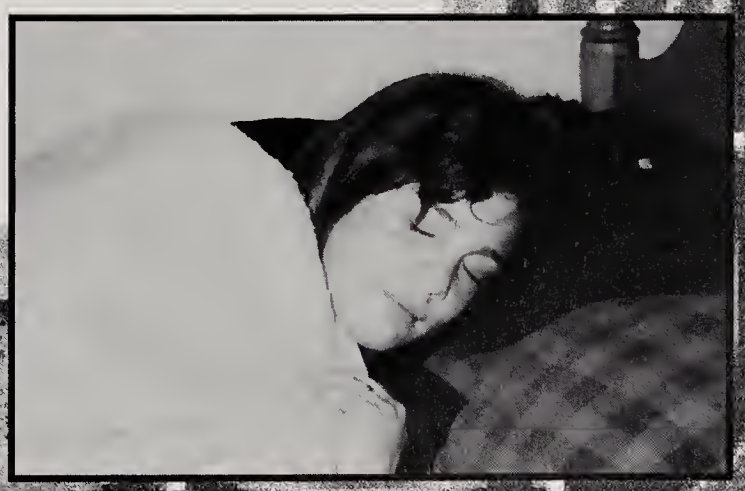
Love, Brendan



Caroline,

"Shoot for the moon. Even if you miss it, you will land among the stars."

Near. . . far . . . whever you are . . .
We know your light will always shine brightly, but nowwhere more brightly than in our hearts.

We love you so much!

CONGRATULATIONS JASON!

I've watched you grow to the wonderful young man you have become today.
I can laugh about the "Unibomber" and your "precocious driving experience."
I am so proud of your focus at school and your accomplishments as an athlete.
I admire your great sportmanship and your kind heart. I know you will attain anything you set your goals on.

I Love You,
Mommy

CONGRATULATIONS GREG!

We are very proud of you and look forward to everything you will become.

As you begin your new journey, never forget that we love you and will always be there for you.

We wish you happiness and success in life.

Love,
